NEW YORK, April 21.—Sentiment on the Street is decidedly bearish, room traders are especially inclined to favor the theory that lower prices are a matter of a few days, and this, despite the fact that the extended short line became very nervous today and forced a decidedly strong market at higher prices. One of the greatest bear arguments advanced is the showing of stockholders of Steel common, indicating that many of the strong people who	Cheese—New York flats, 174/a18c. Eggs—Nearbys, 21c. It was Capital Traction bond day, with a fair smattering of a tivity in bank shares and some advances. The list was reasonably strong, many of the stocks and bonds did not appear on the sales record, but the bid and asked prices showed a good undertone.  Traction 5's sold at 115%@115%. Raliway fa were slow at 84% to 84%. These were the only bond transactions.  Most of the stock transactions were small in volume, nothing over ten shares, really indicating nothing more than a nominal market. Railway, common, 38; Traction, 181, and Graphophone, preferred, at 23. In the bank stocks District National made a new high at 140 for a ten-share lot. National City sold at 170, the pegged price. Where's the stock? is the question the traders ask each other, and they find the answer, in the belief that it is held largely by the public. Don't think for one moment that because you have only a small amount of money your account will not be welcome at this bank. The great majority of our depositors started with small amounts, many of them with only a dollar, and if you do the same you will get just as much courtesy and consideration as if you opened an account with a thousand dollars. If you want to be independent, make the start-don't attempt to save enough first to make a good showing-it's much easier to save if you put the money right in the bank.
